500 Lions and Ladies To Gather Here Sunday

More than 500 members and ladies of Lions International District 1F will gather at George Diamonds in Antioch next Sunday to honor Robert L. Graham, district governor and 13 International Counsellors.

The occasion will be International Counsellor's Night. Highlight of the evening will be a talk by Frank V. Birch of Milwaukee, a past president of Lions International and known world wide for his extensive work in Lions activities. For several years he has been a member of the board of directors of the Green Bay Packers and of the Greater Milwaukee Civic Progress Commission.

Begin 4 Homes Here In March

Four new houses were begun in Antioch in March, building permit records show.

Largest construction was for a home for John Warsing at 601 Orchard for $21,900. J. Stewart is building a home at 566 Highland Ave. for $15,000 and Clarence Knippenberg has taken out a permit for a home in Oakwood Knolls for $12,665. The fourth permit was issued to R. V. Randall, Drom Ct., for an $11,000 structure.

Voters To Polls Tues., Name Twp. Officials

Slowly, officials for the political units of the area will be chosen as voters go to the polls. First election is Tuesday as township officers are chosen. Voters will be required to troop to polling places at least once more this month in some areas and in places such as Antioch, Lake Villa and Lindenhurst, there will be three more elections.

But the township races now in question will be settled by 8 p. m. Tuesday when the last ballot is cast in Wisconsin's Salem Township. Illinois township polls close at 6 p. m. In general, the real battles seem to be in Antioch and Salem Townships where top officials are to be named. Township Supervisor for Antioch will be L. E. Murrie, now completing his first term, or George Mazzuca, insurance man.

City Plan Supporters Promise Public Meet If Committee Lags

Supporters of the plan to make Salem Township a fourth class city this week promised a public meeting before April 16 to present the facts even if the committee commission to look into such a meeting decides against it.

The committee named last month to look into the facts for public presentation is composed of Gilbert Elsfelder and Richard Nuytens, president and secretary respectively, of the Salem Township Subdivisions Assn.

ELSFELDER SAID this week that the committee has been working on the issue for several weeks and will have a statement by next Monday following the Subdivisions Assn. director's meeting Sunday. He said that the statement would include information regarding the proposed public meeting and a decision rendered by the attorney general on the city plan.

Township Chairman Earl Elfers who has been for the plan but now admits he is against the proposal, has been meeting with the committee.

MEANWHILE A group of supporters of the city idea promised that they definitely will have officials and attorneys of other areas which have incorporated into a city at the public meeting. The open fact presentation presumably will be held in Salem's spacious gymnasium on April 8, 15 or 16.

Identified with the supporters are Ray Forster, Trevor, and John Schnurr, Wilmot. Schnurr goes out of office next week as a township supervisor.

Forster says that incorporation is very necessary for the area and the advantages will far outweigh any disadvantages. Politically and financially the plan will benefit the people, he says.

"If we don't incorporate as a city now, I know that Paddock Lake and Trevor-Rock Lake will organize as villages," Forster added.

Dedicate New Ambulance Sunday in LV

The Lake Villa Township Rescue Squad will dedicate its new ambulance at an open house ceremony Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. at the Rescue Squad building on Lake St., west of Rt. 21 in Lake Villa.

Acquisition of the new vehicle was made possible as a result of a door to door fund raising campaign conducted last fall.

AFTER A BRIEF dedication, keys to the new vehicle will be presented to Capt. John Schueler by Raymond J. Colucio, president of the Lake Villa Township Lions Club, sponsors of the Rescue Squad.

All residents of the township are invited to attend and inspect the new ambulance and equipment. Refreshments will be served.

BOTH SCHNURR and Forster agree that the township has enough people per square mile to make the city plan feasible.

Schnurr noted that much misinformation has been passed out and that there are many advantages to the plan which seemingly have been covered up or not discussed. He favored a general fact meeting and a referendum of the voters to find the people's real feelings.

Most of the talk against the proposal has been directed at increased costs for the additional services the people would require and problems of the unique population centers of the area, the supporters say.

"IT WILL ONLY cost what the public demands," Forster said. If they want more services, they will have to pay for them. But no more costs will be incurred than the people are now paying. Besides, a city automatically will get more money from state and county taxes, he advised.

Both supporters and those against the plan have promised to prepare guest editorials outlining advantages and disadvantages which will be published in The Antioch News.

Utility Workers Set 2-Yr. Accident Free Record

Those men in the yellow helmets who work the poles for the Lake Villa district of the Public Service Co. are very proud these days after having completed 100,000 man hours without a lost time accident.

Their employer, the Public Service Co., is proud of them also and has presented them with a certificate and dinner to honor their careful two years.

THE ACCIDENT FREE record is one of the tops in the company, says William Anderson, operations supervisor for this district.

More than 40 persons attended the breakfast last week in Lake Villa to see the certificate presented by Harold Otto, northern division vice-president, and William Bremmer, safety supervisor for the company. There are 24 linemen in the district, now working toward a third accident-free year.

2 Salesmen Arrested Selling Sans License

Two salesmen have been arrested and fined $10 each and costs for soliciting in the Village of Antioch without a solicitor's permit.

They are John Zenkovich, Elm-hurst, and Alton C. Goodwin, Chicago. According to Police Chief Walter Scott, they were arrested on the same day last week but were not working together.

In other police business, Robert W. Repholz, 16, Round Lake, has been arrested on a charge of driving at an excessive rate of speed.

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP:

Although the campaign for the top Antioch office has been quiet, the two candidates have been working hard for votes. Neither has made speeches to organized groups but have relied on advertising, direct mail and personal contact to secure votes.

Murrie has an excellent financial picture in the township to end his first term which may draw him some votes. The township is carrying a substantial cash balance in most accounts and proposes to reduce levy requests at the annual town meeting which ironically is to be held the night of the election.

However Mazzuca has been campaigning on a personal note, claiming that the incumbent has not fulfilled some of the requests of residents when they want services.

MAZZUCA HAS told many residents that he does not feel an office should go uncontested and that was one of his reasons for filing for the job. He had his petition ready early but did not file until the last day in the event some other person would seek the office besides Murrie. However, Mazzuca says he is in the contest to win and points to his experience in dealing with the public as one qualification for the job. He has served on the Grass Lake School Board, his only previous elective capacity.

Murrie, a service station owner in Antioch, feels that it takes at least a year in office as supervisor to become well acquainted with the problems of the township. He has been telling his contacts that his four years' experience will eliminate any waste of a year just in meeting problems.

The race also shapes up as a contest between natives and newcomers to the area. Murrie is a lifelong resident and Mazzuca has lived here for 11 years. Though many deny that there is any problem of "acceptance" of newcomers, both candidates admit that there are some feelings of superiority and interference on both sides. They both admit that these things will always exist in a growing area but both have known views on these problems.

Chamber Sets 'Exciting' Spring Sale

An entirely new and exciting spring promotion is being planned by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce for which plans will be finalized at a meeting next Wednesday, April 6 at the Ruralite at 7:30 p. m.

The sale, scheduled for the latter part of April, is being presented by members of the chamber who wish to show their appreciation to their year 'round customers by staging the promotion before the summer residents arrive, says Ralph Gresens, president of the merchant group.

ALSO ON HAND at the meeting will be Leonard Jasinski, representative of the Credit Bureau of Waukegan-North Chicago, who will present a program of interest to every businessman, Gresens says.

All merchants in the area, both member and non-members are invited to attend the meeting to work out final details for the spring promotion. Reservations for dinner are being taken by Bob Calloway, chamber secretary, and Gresens.

Watch Spending, Build Defenses, Rep. Church Says

By Jean Homan

Adequate defense for the country and very careful spending were expressed by Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church in Chicago Monday as she addressed the Women's Republican Club of the 13th District at its seventh annual Easter brunch.

Mrs. Church reported that her greatest concern at the present time is what is happening inside our country; that what we should be working about is strength.

"WE SHOULD BE afraid of a country so in need of defense as to be Militaristic, but we have got to keep our guard up. I would rather we have too much strength than too little," she said.

She said she was thankful that "we can count our president an expert on how much military strength we need and yet one who has a passion for peace and thinks of the future of our country."

ONE GREAT DANGER to this strength is the spending going on in Congress, she added.

"A country can fall within itself from spending too much!" she noted. In 1936, the entire spending amounted to $7 billion. This year the amount is at $283 billion and may go to $288 billion. Up to Feb. 15 the Democrats had introduced bills in Congress for spending $117 billion over the proposed budget.

Mrs. Church reminded the women that there is no such thing as public money; it must all come from home.

On the subject of the addition of Alaska and Hawaii to the country, Mrs. Church says she is happy to know the country still has enough vitality to grow without fear.

SHE MENTIONED the transformation going on at the capitol and said they did not know when voting on a bill for "necessary and vital repairs to the capitol building" that it meant removing the columns and putting a new face on the building. But she assured the women that it is going to look very nice when finished.

There were not many representatives of West Lake County in the spacious Polynesian Room of the Edgewater Beach Hotel for Mrs. Church's Report from Washington. However, an estimated 400 women of the district heard the report.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Horace Vaile, Lake County co-chairman of the district club and assisted by her Cook County counterpart, Mrs. Bert K. Murphy.

Not Enough Time To Tally Up Federal Spending Figures

Before leaving Washington to give her 13th district report on Congressional activity, Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church wanted to get accurate figures on federal spending to bring her speech up to date.

So she related how she called a federal agency to get the latest spending figures.

"HOW SOON ARE you leaving for your talk?" the agent asked. "Wednesday," Mrs. Church replied.

"Oh, I won't be able to add up the new figures by then," he said.

But by way of explanation, Mrs. Church told the women that the agent had other work and did not have the time to make the computations, not that spending had increased to such a point that making the totals would be so difficult.

Driver's Permit Suspended

The driver's license of John C. Korol, Rt. 4, Antioch, has been suspended by the secretary of state after having been arrested for three moving traffic offenses. He has been given a probationary permit, the secretary advises.

Lakes, River Flood Waters Rise to 10 Year High Point

Flood waters rose to their highest point in nearly 10 years last weekend, flooding several summer residences and some year round homes around the Antioch area lakes.

However, John Barnings, lock master at the McHenry dam on the Fox River, says the water apparently has reached its peak and should begin to subside this weekend. He based his opinion on a tour of the Fox River from Wilmot to McHenry over the weekend.

"THE LOCKS HAVE been opened for a month and we can't do anything here," Barnings told the Antioch News Tuesday.

It has been a severe winter with deep snow and thick ice, he said.

On top of that was the heavy rain and rapidly rising temperatures of last week. More than 1 1/2 inches of rain fell at McHenry in one day, he added.

At least a dozen homes next to Rt. 173 at Channel Lake were inundated over the weekend as water rose 2 1/2 feet in about three days. Water stood at nine inches in the basement of one home at Lake Marie, it was reported.

L. E. MURRIE, Antioch Township supervisor, said he had received numerous calls from people wanting to know what the township was going to do about the high water. But the township cannot do a thing, he has had to say because the waterways do not fall under township jurisdiction.

"My own front yard has been under water for a week," Murrie said. He lives at Lake Marie.

Water is the highest at Channel Lake since about 1952, says Barney Shunnesson, owner of the Channel Lake Boat House. His business is next to the flooded summer homes.

AT PETITE LAKE, water is about 3 1/2 feet above normal says Ed Clemens, owner of a resort there for many years. As an experienced observer, he feels that more water is due to come with the melting ice now on the lakes and additional water coming down the river.

"We're at the mercy of the weather," Clemens said. Another heavy rain could cause the lakes to rise another few feet, he added.

Clemens added that the flood waters are not spoiling fishing and should not do so even though natural "bait" will be washed down from the shore. Ice still is about six inches thick on Petite Lake in the center, he said.

Several persons in the Petite Lake area have been inconvenienced but none of them have been forced out of their homes, it is reported. Some cesspools and septic systems have backed up and there is report of one new home sinking about six inches on the lake front.

Water on the inland lakes has not risen, observers said.

Tired Voter Flexing His Fingers

Voters in this area should now get out their pencils and practice making small X's in small squares, for that's about all they will be doing for the next month.

Next Tuesday the voters will troop to the polls to elect township officers.

On Saturday the people will repeat the process to elect their school boards.

A few of the more hardy voters in the villages will again go to the polls April 21 to name municipal officers.

And in Antioch Township High School District, voters will go to the polls for a fourth time on May 8 to decide if a new high school is to be built.

It does seem a little ridiculous to do a job so many times when once would do it all. Voting so many times is a trial of people's time and certainly costs money.

According to the statutes, voting is controlled in this manner and all elections can not be lumped together on the same date. It seems much more economical and efficient to have a single spring date for all elections instead of spreading them out so profusely. But it is state legislation that controls such polling and if it is to be changed, then the tired voter must request the change.

Taxpayers Get Good Value From Service Of Local H School Teachers

It is not the policy of this newspaper to make an answer to reader's letters because at times it may appear that the newspaper is attempting to belittle the reader opinions. However this week The Antioch News feels that a point brought up by a reader is worthy of additional comment.

In the letter published on this page, a reader apparently feels that Antioch High School is a teacher training school for beginning teachers and that it is not in the best interests of the taxpayers to support such practices.

The reader draws his conclusions from a story appearing last week in which it was reported that a beginning high school teacher had resigned and that experienced teachers at times have been known to leave the system when they were assigned classes which they did not feel they wanted.

The reader brings up a good point in that teachers must stay in a system for long periods of time in order to do the most good and this system should not indeed be a training school.

However Antioch has a good record in this respect and its administration is working to attract and keep the best teachers. The record bears this out.

In 1956-57, with 26 teachers, three did not return for the year but this is the disposition of those three: one retired at the mandatory age; one resigned because of marriage and one was an outright resignation in order to seek a better position.

The 1957-58 year was somewhat darker in this respect but the record shows that of 33 teachers on the staff, 12 did not return; five found new jobs; five resigned to seek better positions and two quit because of marriage.

In the 1958-59 year with 36 teachers, three did choose not to return; two resigned for better positions and one moved closer to his home. This is especially good when one considers that 15 new teachers came into the system for the year.

The principal of the high school feels that any turnover of more than 10 percent is harmful but his records of the past three years indicate that teachers here are satisfactory and that taxpayers are getting good value from the teaching staff at the high school level.

Windshield Stickers On Sale for State Park Admissions

Windshield stickers which will admit occupants of an automobile to any Illinois State Park went on sale last week in Springfield, Chicago and most of the 31 parks where admission fees are required by law. Sticker numbers 1 and 2 were sold to Governor William G. Stratton. He is anxious to provide Illinois with a finer and larger parks system.

THE STICKERS sell for $2 each and are good for the entire season. This year's stickers are green to distinguish them from the brown ones of a year ago.

Parks records kept by the Department of Conservation reveal that almost $200,000 was realized from sticker sales and admission collection in 1958, making it the biggest year for the State Parks fund which is made up of collections and commissions on parks concessions.

Several minor changes in the law governing collection of admission are being considered this year in the General Assembly, but basically the present regulations have proven popular as well as profitable, the governor says.

Fined For Reckless Driving

Robert John Elworth, Rt. 4, has been fined $25 and costs on a charge of reckless driving in Antioch. The hearing was in police magistrate court last week.

Must Hold Teachers In Local Schools for Best Education

It was interesting to read your March 26, 1959 issue of the Antioch News. There was quite a change in tone and apparent viewpoints expressed on education from the first page to the second. I must agree with the front page that the highest caliber of teachers must be attracted to Antioch High School, and that in any educational system, it is the teachers, not the physical plant, that gives character, purpose and meaning to education.

It is not economically sound or educationally beneficial for the community of Antioch to think that a new building program, per se, will give Antioch the system of education that will benefit its children. This building program must be weighed against the excessive cost of running a "teachers' training school" where many qualified men and women have spent one or two years for experience and then for various reasons, not always clear to the public, have left the school to go elsewhere. This continual, excessive turnover implies internal disharmony and has hampered lasting educational development for Antioch's future.

In a democratic system, a coup d'etat is accomplished by the voters at the polls. This community should evaluate one of the prime problems in the educational system of the High School: The exodus of qualified, competent teachers over the past few years. From your article about the School Board meeting, this trend is still continuing with little public awareness.

If Antioch displays its apathy in this matter, it will have the education it now must want with the future being the less for it.

One hundred years ago a startling but unheralded development occurred. The first drop of oil oozed from a small hole in the ground 69½ feet deep. Edwin Drake had drilled and brought in the first commercial oil well.

From that event mighty industries were created. The automobile fused with the American scene. Airplanes were built. Across the Atlantic Lindbergh flew non-stop from New York to Paris. And in many American homes and business establishments oil heat systems were installed.

Now, after one hundred years of progress, we can honestly say we live better because of oil; because of Edwin Drake's discovery on August 27, 1859.

Disabled Children Over 18 Can Qualify for Social Security Benefits

"The 1958 amendments to the Social Security Act make it easier for a disabled child over 18 to qualify for social security benefits on his parent's social security records," Bernard Barnett of the Waukegan, Illinois social security office said today.

Before September 1958, a disabled child who was chiefly supported by a public agency or some person other than the parent could not receive social security benefits on the parent's account. Under the new law, the disabled child is entitled to benefits if he meets the benefit requirements for a child under 18. These requirements are more liberal. It is no longer necessary, in most cases, that the disabled child be receiving at least one-half of his support from the parent.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS were not changed. Before a child can qualify for disabled child's benefits, a parent must be receiving social security retirement benefits, or must have been insured under the social security program at the time of death, Barnett says.

A new application is necessary on behalf of those disabled children whose previous application was denied because the child did not meet the one-half support requirement.

Chicago, LA Losing Race To Federalville

Chicago and Los Angeles can quit squabbling about which is America's second largest city. The returns are in... and they both lost.

A new city is on the rise. It's already reduced the Chicago-Los Angeles spat to a third place argument and it seems only a matter of time until New York gets its biggest shock since the Giants and Dodgers decided to pack up and leave town. The name of the city? Federalville, U. S. A.

OF COURSE SUCH a community doesn't actually exist. But according to figures recently made public by Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D., Va.), if all the persons on Uncle Sam's payroll and their families were gathered together in one locality it would have a population of at least 5,489,325. Maybe more.

The Senator—never a man to be loose with figures—says the federal payroll now totals 2,381,000 men and women. Assuming half of these to be unmarried and taking the Census Bureau's estimate of 3.65 persons in the average American household for the other half, puts the population of the mythical city well beyond Chicago and Los Angeles and right on New York's heels, says the National Assn. of Manufacturers.

NOW, IF THE American people were told they were going to have to provide total support for the entire populace of Chicago, the hue and cry would be heard 'round the world. But we're doing that and more with Federalville, whose monthly payroll is estimated at a billion dollars, says the NAM.

Even assuming every program in which the government is involved is vital and essential to our national well-being, Sen. Byrd assures us that more than 150,000 jobs could be abolished without reducing efficiency in the slightest.

With Congress proceeding with almost dogged determination to force our money on people, projects and governments that neither need nor want it, the suggestion of the gentleman from Virginia makes very good sense, the NAM continues.

We might even save money on the budget for red ink. And Federalville would still be in second place.

ANOTHER PROBLEM YOU'LL HAVE IN ALMOST EVERY NEW CAR BUT MERCURY. Six passengers—hah! Ride a while in most new cars and you'll come out laughing—bitterly... maybe hysterically. Then ride in a Mercury. The center hump (bigger than ever on other cars) is actually cut in half. Doors are 6" wider. There's 9" more knee room, more head, hip and shoulder room. This, sir and madam, is a real 6-passenger car. Comfortable, roomy, and a beauty in the bargain. Come see it. Soon.

Business and You:Sales People Lack Pitch To Interest the Shoppers

By William D. Bien

I've heard top-notch salesmen refer to their business as a lost art. Now I know what they mean.

I took part in a unique test of salesmanship this week along with members of the National Sales Executives Club. The results were, to put it mildly, disappointing.

"Shocking" was the reaction of the sales executives, themselves. They had discovered that retail employees are a lazy breed of order takers who have forgotten — or never have been taught — how to sell.

We went to a number of stores in our typically American community with instructions to ask for a specific item, something rather inexpensive.

If the sales clerk so much as suggested additional items, we were to continue buying up to $15 worth of merchandise.

ALL IT TOOK on the sales clerk's part was bare courtesy and a tiny touch of salesmanship to increase the original sale as much as 15 times.

So what happened?

Ten of us scattered throughout the city and made 82 sample shoppings in all types of retail stores.

We had, among us, $1,230 to spend.

But all that we could get rid of — even by hinting broadly at our eagerness to unload a few bucks — was $348.23.

Some of our test shoppers bought nothing; they couldn't even get served.

Not because of the crowds; they stood and waited while sales clerks chatted among themselves, filed fingernails or stared morosely into space, studiously ignoring the customers.

As one member of our team said, "It's amazing. We draw all these people through our doors with advertising — and then we ignore the technique of making sales!"

But more than lost sales were involved in this test.

Several concerns participating in the experiment had a plan for rewarding good sales efforts. Without letting the employees know, management intended to give the equivalent of each increased purchase in cash to the clerk who was responsible.

A few — very few — will collect.

Happily, there were the rare exceptions.

But more often, our test shoppers went away from a counter irritated and almost empty-handed.

ONE MAN picked out a box of greeting cards. He waited several minutes while the clerk — also a man — displayed extreme disinterest a few feet away. Finally the clerk moved — and shouldered between the customer and the counter to rearrange the stack of boxed cards.

The customer then waved his desired purchase in front of the clerk, who at last looked around and grumbled, "You want those?"

Then there was the case of the man who went to several downtown stores to buy ties, broadly hinting at other sales possibilities by saying, "I'd like a nice necktie, I have to dress up for a big party tonight."

In one place he looked at the $3 ties. A salesman approached and our man went into his big-party-want-a-tie routine.

So the salesman led him to a rack of cheaper, $1.50 ties — and let him leave without suggesting even one item more!

Close as they are to practical sales psychology, the test shoppers — all engaged in sales at the management level — were unanimous in their astonishment. It would have been disbelief if they hadn't seen for themselves.

At the end of the whole, dreary affair, we gathered with our purchases and in the bull session that followed, someone mentioned that retail sales in the community were running below the same week of last year.

One of the group shook his head and commented wryly, "I wonder why..."

State OKs Phone Co. Plea for Free Toll Expansion

The Illinois Commerce Commission Thursday held a public hearing in Chicago to receive evidence on the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. request to extend toll free calling areas for Antioch and Lake Villa telephones.

The commission has approved the plan, says R. N. Hawkins, Antioch manager of the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

FOR LAKE VILLA, subscribers would be able to call an additional 30,000 telephones in Antioch, Grayslake and Waukegan. Antioch subscribers would be able to call any of the 1,855 phones in Lake Villa without an additional toll charge.

Testimony was heard from L. R. Stang, general rate engineer for the company who said the proposed plan is similar to others recently approved by the commission and favorably received in other communities.

Stang said the company estimated calling between these communities would jump to three or four times its present volume. This increased traffic would require the company to install additional central equipment and telephone lines—a job which would take from 18 to 24 months to complete after approval and before the new service could be made available. New phone rates are included in the service extension...

Baseball Opener for Sequoits
Tonight, Another Letterman Back

Baseball season opens for the Antioch Sequoits Thursday night at North Chicago, if weather permits.

The non-scheduled pre-conference game will be cancelled in case of foul weather, says coach Larry Leon of Antioch.

BUT LEON IS hoping his squad can get the game in because the regular conference season begins on Tuesday at Grayslake. The Rams are always tough and Leon feels his team needs the practice.

Grayslake players usually have more baseball than Antioch because of American Legion ball at the Rams' town. Players get about four or five months extra play in per year.

A NUMBER of returning lettermen also makes the chore of beating Grayslake tougher.

But Leon has an added surprise in his starting lineup with Bill Jarvis at first base. Jarvis originally did not turn out for baseball because he was working, but he has told Leon that arrangements have been made with his employer to allow baseball in the schedule. Jarvis is a letter winner from last year's squad.

While Antioch's varsity is at Grayslake, the soph squad will be at home against the Ram Soph team. That is the schedule all year, i. e., when the varsity is at home, the Sophs are away.

The tentative starters Coach Leon has listed are:

Sig Nielsen and Don Wiegell, pitchers; Dick Gudgeon, catching; Jarvis, 1b; Ken Stepien, 2b; Chuck Schuth, ss; Russ Cote, 3b; Chip Eberman, center field.

The right field and left field posts still are open and will not be filled until game time, Leon said.

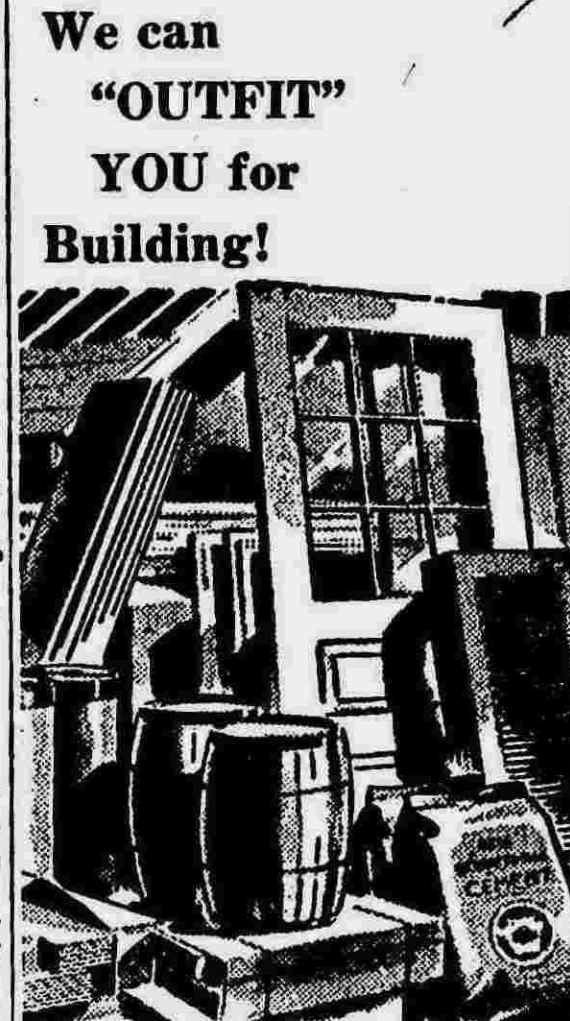

8 Teams Signed
For Softball,
More Wanted

Plans are being drawn up for the second season of the Antioch Men's Softball League with sign-up of teams already started.

The first meeting of the year will be held during the second week of April with representatives of at least eight teams meeting. It is hoped that teams from all over the area will send representatives also, says Dr. Richard Carlucci at Antioch 1461.

The league ended last year with nine teams. Play is with a 16 inch ball, slow pitch. No definite site for games has been found in Antioch.

Dr. Carlucci said, but arrangements may be worked out by the time of the April meeting.

News' Keg Tourney Filled,
Overflow with Entries

Enthusiasm for the first Antioch News' elimination championship bowling tournament was greater than anticipated as the full roster of 128 keggers plus numerous substitutes have been signed up.

According to Jack Sampayo, co-owner of the Antioch Bowl and director of the tournament, the first draw should be made by April 12. As soon as the entry fees from the 128 bowlers have been received the drawing for the first pairings will be held.

THE PAIRINGS will be published in the Antioch News after each drawing and it will be up to the two bowlers to get together for their roll off. After the first drawing, the bowlers will be given until April 17 to roll their lines. Subsequent drawings will be made and the pairings listed every week until the championship has been determined.

If an entry fails to show for his match he forfeits the match and is automatically eliminated, Sampayo said.

If both bowlers paired on the first round fail to roll off their games both will forfeit and the two highest names on the substitute list will be picked up.

THE HANDICAP will be 75 per cent on the bowlers composite averages. Only one bowler in each match to receive a handicap.

The final match is expected to be bowled sometime in May and the winner will get $100 in prize money plus a large trophy.

Losers of the second round will receive $5, which will repay their entry fee and from then on the prizes are increased until the semi-finalists, who will get $20 each.

Many of the woman bowlers expressed an interest in a tournament of this kind, Sampayo said. If an entry field of 64 bowlers, or even 32 could be signed up it could be run. As the keggers bowl during open bowling at their convenience the two tournaments could be run together.

A tournament pairings bracket will be posted at the bowling alley and a running account kept of the winners of each match.

Watch the brackets as the number of bowlers dwindles, Sampayo advises.

Gal's Tourney Begins
On Weekend, 50 Entries

Women bowlers of the area are slow in getting tuned up for the big annual Women's Singles Handicap Tournament which is to start this weekend at the Antioch Bowl.

So far only 50 gals have indicated a desire to try for a share of the $855 in prize money. The prize list is estimated on the entry list of 302 bowlers in last year's tourney and if that number does not sign up, the prize list will be pared accordingly.

THERE ARE TWO days left for local gals to sign for the tourney.

The women will be aided by a two-thirds handicap based on the difference between their highest average and 190 scratch, says Jack Sampayo, co-owner of the local lanes. They will bowl in squads of four beginning every 20 minutes on the next three week-ends, and the two Wednesday afternoons of April 8 and April 15.

First prize has been set at $200 and a trophy, second prize at $100 and third place is good for $75. Entry fee is $5.

Wilmot Opens

Wilmot's Panthers are set to open the track season in the lakes region next Wednesday when they meet Union Grove on the home field.

Coach Frank Bucci has four lettermen returning including all-around athlete Wally Parteneheimer and Bob Horton, Jim Ratchek and Tom Dicklin. Parteneheimer will be out to better his 440 and high hurdles conference championship marks set last year and Horton will defend his conference leading half-mile racing title.

BOTH ALSO RUN relays and broad jump.

The other two lettermen who form the nucleus of a 34-man track squad are Dicklin in the low hurdles and Ratchek in the shot and discus events and the relays.

After the home dual meet opener, the Panthers will enter nine other meets including the state class C meet at Ripon on May 23.

The schedule:

Many F. L. Hills Beach Improvements Slated In Cooperative Project

Harold Riley, chairman of the Beach and Parks Committee reports that his committee met with John Rule of Fox Lake Hills, Inc., last Saturday and that the subdivision has received Rule's financial cooperation for additional improvements of the beach areas.

Riley is now in the process of obtaining estimates for cement launching ramps for both basins. He also reports that the new signs will be installed by the week-end, washed sand will be spread on the beaches, the lawns will be top soiled and reseeded and the Community Beach House will receive a new paint job. The property owners owe a vote of thanks to Riley and his committee for their efforts.

Florian Jokiel, chairman of the Special Committee for Dog Registration reports that he has tags for pets of members in good standing whose dogs have had rabies shots. Owners may obtain free tags for their pets by applying for them through the chairman who resides in the pink house on Hawthorne Drive, Bussee area, phone Justice 7-9621.

This service is rendered free by the Property Owners Assn. in an effort to rid the community of stray dogs. The dog tags will be registered with local authorities and owners of dogs bearing tags will be notified should their dogs be impounded.

Mrs. George Chonis, secretary of the Property Owners Association reports that the membership cards will be mailed to the property owners as soon as the new decals arrive. Hereafter the association will issue the decals to members in good standing only.

She also reports that a special meeting of the Board of Directors and the Legal Advisory committee has been called for Monday, April 6 John Soffietti, the association's attorney will be present. Property owners will receive a report of this meeting at the regular board meeting on Monday, April 20.

Residents in the area are reminded that April and May are very windy months and considerable damage can be done by an untended trash fire. If the fire department had not put out the brush fire on Lindenwood Drive when it did, the home would have gone up in flames. Any trash burning should be under careful supervision, in a safe container on a calm day.

The Easter Bunny's visit to the subdivision was a very happy occasion for the children and adults who participated in the event. After the children had gone, the Bunny decided to visit the patients at the Hampstead House. The Easter Bunny (Mrs. Robert Coleman) reports that they were as thrilled as the children with her visit.

Frank Alex, Jr., of Lindenwood Drive is home from the hospital and on the slow road back to health. His friends and neighbors hope he will be well soon and back at his job of Junior Custodian of the beach premises. Frank is in the 8th grade at Gavin School and still hopes to graduate with his classmates.

Young explorers Butch Conrad and Mike Mays found a buried treasure. They found 87 cents in change, including two Indian head pennies, a Confederate $100 bill dated 1861 which states on its face that 2 cents per day after issue will be paid to holder. They haven't figured out as yet how much it would have been worth had the Confederacy survived. They also found a half of a dollar bill.

'My Blue Heaven' Is Theme of Jr. Prom

By Pat Byrne

Theme of the Junior Prom will be "My Blue Heaven," so the main purpose of a meeting of the prom decorating committee last week was to build the decorations around the theme.

Co-chairmen of the decoration committee are Bob Martin and Sue Romer. Two recorders, Nancy Nemec and Pat Byrne, were picked to keep a record of the progress that is made.

SUB-COMMITTEES were chosen to make sure that no important job is left undone. Chairmen of these sub-committees are: Ceiling and Side, Trudy Good and Sharon Dittman; Star, Nancy Scott and Norma Brown; Orchestra Stage, George Sturm and George Mantis; King and Queen, Nancy Srich and Terry Ptack.

It was also decided that the decoration committee would meet every Friday, the next meeting taking place on Friday, April 3. All juniors are urged to attend these meetings.

Sequoits vs. Rams In Season Opener

By Dick Gudgeon

The Antioch baseball nine will open their regular season on Tuesday, April 7, against the Grayslake Rams on the Rams' diamond. The Sequoits will also play a practice game with North Chicago as soon as the weather permits.

Last season Antioch finished in second place in the conference but they defeated the champion Warren Blue Devils twice.

THE PROSPECTS this year look bright with four letter men returning. There are three other letter winners from last year's squad who will not play this year. Among the players returning are Russ Cote, hard hitting senior outfielder; Chip Eberman, an outfielder last season who may be shifted to first base, and Ken Stepien, a scrappy little junior infielder.

Pitching will be the team's biggest worry. Missing from last year's pitching squad are Bernie LaBose and Don Pyles. Promising pitchers this year are Don Wiegell, a smooth throwing lefty; and two tall right handers, Sig Nielsen and Paul Magiera. Other outfield candidates besides Cote are Dick Wolf and Larry Loucher, both of whom are up from last year's sophomore team.

THE INFIELD candidates this season are Chuck Schuth, sophomore shortstop, and Jerry Dahlman, a junior third baseman. Dick Gudgeon is the only candidate out for catcher. The other players will battle it out for the rest of the open places and attempt to beat the regulars out of their positions.

In order for Antioch to win the conference, the pitching will have to come through in great style. Elaverson could be the team to beat out for the conference title, with the Grant Bulldogs also up in the thick of the race.

Science Projects Present Problems

But there is more to come.

I met Mr. Gudgeon with his boots on coming down the hall. He said that he was waiting for a student who was supposed to help him sweep out the girls' gym (the Radio Club had sponsored a dance there the night before). Of course, as you might have guessed, the student had not arrived. I barely got out of doing that task by the skin of my teeth. I foxily told him just to wait a few minutes longer, for the boy was sure to show up. (As far as I know, Mr. Gudgeon never saw the student the rest of the day).

AS I PASSED BY the office I saw that Sonya Pickus and Mrs. Oshefski were identifying pictures for the annual. I didn't get by fast enough though, for they saw me and of course I had to identify some pictures.

Just before going out the door, I began to hear this loud thumping noise. I investigated.

Did you know that the teachers practice basketball on Saturday afternoons?

I got out of school very fast. As a last word, let me give you this advice. Rather than spend three hours in school, like me, just to get some forgotten homework, forget it!

Under the Teepee

Attention Seniors! Graduation is approaching, only 45 school days. This count is not including the days off and semester exam days. Sounds pretty good, doesn't it?

What was Mrs. Tulumello doing with a beard and a mustache in her first period class last week?

GAA Shooting Tournament was held March 11 in the girls' gym. The scores of the girls were sent in to the state competition. Our GAA took first place in the district and seventh place in the state. Mary Lou Geist and Sue Duha were the best shooters in the group and received a medal. All this good shooting was possible through the coaching of Miss N. Donovan.

Don't forget the Senior Class play this week-end! We know you will enjoy it. It begins at 8:15 in the high school auditorium; admission is 40 cents for students and 75 cents for adults.

On March 25 the All Stars played the Alumni and as always, the All Stars won in two fairly close games. Some of the alumni attending were: Willy Van Hilst, Marlene Freund, Donna Dittmer, Donna Martin, Jackie Martin, Jeanie Tegelman, Joan Forbrich, Donna Ballwanz, Peggy Cardiff, Garnet Behrens, Phyllis Peterson and Corky Brockway.

The Junior girls voted on who would go to Girls State. Bunny Schley was chosen and Norma Brown was chosen for the alternate.

If you are going out for track, you must have intestinal fortitude. In smaller words, it means guts. Who put the picture on Mrs. Tulumello's window? If you haven't noticed it yet it would be worth a trip up to her room to see it.

Shorthand II gave a test the day Miss Slavin was gone. Everyone in the class knew it was a fake test except Joyce Barski. Just ask her how she did on it, then run.

The business classes went to Chicago on March 26 to visit the Merchandise Mart. They left about 7 a. m. on the regular school busses. In the next issue more details will be given.

Judy Maleck had the measles last week. I wonder who will be next to get them, don't you, Russ?

Don Sheehan is looking for a lunch thief. It seems he can never find his food when he goes to lunch. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of this thief please report it to Don. He is offering two cookies as reward.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye! I hear Mr. Smouse and Mr. Rush had quite a bit of exercise running up and down the back stairs of hotels rounding up kids who couldn't seem to remember what the room number they stayed in was. True or not true?

That's all the news we have this week. See you all next issue if you don't die laughing after going to the play.

Time Has Come for Sr. Class Play on Fri.-Sat.

Band, Chorus Tour Said Successful

Three Greyhound busses have just returned their contents to the high school grounds after a successful 1,000-mile tour through Illinois and Missouri.

From the general talk about school, it was a lot of fun and will long be remembered. The Antioch students were welcomed most enthusiastically by the audiences in Seneca, Colfax, Ill., and Bowling Green, Mo. The only night concert given was at Peoria State Hospital.

THE OVERNIGHT stops were at Springfield, St. Louis, and Peoria. There were no complaints registered by the hotels in which the students stayed, even though the laughing, singing, and joke telling went on way past curfew.

On the way home there could be seen loads of exhausted boys and girls sleeping for the first time since the tour began Thursday morning. But if you were on the second bus, there wasn't much sleeping going on because a few brave stragglers, and they looked like stragglers after about 10 hours of sleep in four days, chose to sing instead of snooze the last four hours.

Lakes Theatre Sponsors Award

The Lakes Theatre is offering an award for the two most outstanding students of the year.

A committee has been chosen from the Student Council to work on the presentation of the award. They are: Mr. Brown, adviser; Elaine Christensen, Bob Martin, and Karen Van Patten.

THE COMMITTEE suggested that the students be chosen for scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

It was decided to give the award on a yearly basis and to have one girl and one boy to receive it. The nominations of this boy and girl would be made by the Student Council and the faculty.

The faculty would make the final vote. The names of the students to receive this award would be kept secret until the night of the presentation. The presentation will be made at the Lakes Theatre, and shortly after or before the presentation a movie will be shown.

One trophy will be given with both names on it. The trophy will be left at the school and the students receiving this award will get pins or certificates.

Survey Conducted by Business Department

The business education department is working on a survey, to be mailed to students having taken two or more business education subjects. This survey will be mailed to graduates of the last four years.

Its purpose is to find out the type of work the graduates are doing and what part of their business training they are using.

THE SURVEY contains a list of the machines used in the offices and the type of work available. The graduates will then check the jobs they are doing and the office machines they are using.

The information obtained from this survey will help the teachers in the department when planning their courses and in securing the necessary equipment for the training of students.

Promising Future for Track Squad; 70 Out

Track is becoming one of the fastest growing sports at Antioch High School. This year 70 boys are trying out for the squad and it looks as if the team should place well up in the first division.

Returning lettermen are: Chris Davis, who went to the state track meet last year; Bill Dressel, captain for this year and who should also take a Champaign trip this year; Wes Merryman, Walt Rosquist, Vince Nauseda, Tom Burda, George Greene, Ken Truelson, Don Eggleston, and Richard Prange.

ALTHOUGH LACKING in

Nippersink Manor Site For After-Prom Party

The big topic of discussion among the students lately has been that of the fabulous after-prom party at Nippersink Manor, being planned by the Junior Class along with the P.T.A. The date for the Junior-Senior prom has been set for May 16 and the agenda for the evening will be as follows:

Formal dance from 8 to 11:30 p. m. in the school gymnasium; its theme, "My Blue Heaven." Those attending the dance will be juniors, seniors and their dates. (No freshmen may attend.)

IMMEDIATELY following the dance, students will drive to Nippersink Manor, a Country Club near Genoa City, Wis., where they are to meet at 1 p. m. (They may either change into casual clothes before they go or while they're there.)

Soon after they arrive a dinner will be provided, buffet style, after which a movie will be shown. The rest of the night, the students may use many of the facilities of the Club: shuffle board, ping-pong, dancing to a juke box, and others.

IN THE MORNING, a large breakfast will be served, after which all can go out and play tennis, golf, go boating on the lake, or just relax. A picnic lunch will be provided for each individual which may be eaten anywhere on the grounds, or, if preferred, at some picnic area other than Nippersink. The activities will end at 1:00 p. m. May 17 when the building will be closed.

The cost for the party will be $26 per couple. This plan will help solve the problem of students driving around all night and having to go into the city, advisers say.

Fe-Fi-fo-Fum, I smell smoke in the a-u-d-i-t-o-r-i-u-m.

The Seniors are burning up to tell you about the Senior class play, "What a Life," starring Bill Dressel as Henry Aldrich.

HAVING PEEKED in on a few of their practice sessions, I can tell you that it is going to be simply hilarious. As you might have guessed, the play is a comedy.

The play will be held in the auditorium on Friday and Saturday April 3-4. It promises to be well worth the price of admission.

Tickets can be purchased from any of the Senior class play members, from the cafeteria at noon, or from the ticket booth at the time of the play.

Crews are: Lighting, Forrest Stahmer; Make-up, Cleon Schley and Carol Ruhl; Properties, Lee Osmond, Kathy Burke; Arlene Rozek; programs, Sandra Barnstable; Tickets, Charlotte Horton; Publicity, Sally Janu-gary and Marge Ptasienski.

Music Begins In Cafeteria, Pupils Donate Records

If you happen to wander unsuspectingly into the cafeteria during any of the lunch periods, don't be surprised by what you hear.

The playing of music in the cafeteria can be heard every lunch period. It is a relatively new thing around the school. It was started last week, and it seems to have caught on pretty well.

RECORDS THAT are played are donated by the students. If the committee members (Faye Mann, Senior; Sharon Dittman, Junior; Dan Conrad, Sophomore; Rich Sheehan, Freshman) do not receive enough records to play for one week in advance, classical records will be used instead. This has gone only as far as a threat though, because there has been an abundance of popular records.

The record player being used at the present time has been donated by Margo Ott.

TEACHERS THAT have made this playing music in the cafeteria possible are Mr. Corrigan and Mr. Gudgeon. They spent a great deal of time hooking up the apparatus that was needed.

At the rate that it is going on now, the playing of records in the cafeteria seems very likely to be here for many years to come, say observers.

Jewel Employees Receive Hike of Retirement Funds

Employees of the Jewel Tea Co. in Antioch last week received notice of an increase in their share in the company's profit sharing plan, now in its 20th year.

Known as the Jewel Retirement Estates, the cash balance was increased by more than $5 million during 1958. Each year Jewel contributes a portion of 15 per cent of the company's net profit before taxes and after a provision to the stockholders. It is distributed to the employees on the basis of salary and personal deposits. Company contributions for 1958 averaged $1.61 for each dollar of member deposits.

The money is invested in government and corporate bonds and preferred and common stocks. The investments earned $1,373,000 last year.

In the 20 years of the plan's operation, more than $12 million has been paid out to employees.

Tile Sales Could Be $865,000 in County

Illinois offers a sales potential for ceramic floor and wall tile in 1959 of $28,364,774, according to John B. Sparks, president of the Tile Council of America. Lake County's potential is $865,125.

The estimate is based on a survey conducted by the trade association, whose 27 members represent more than 90 per cent of the domestic output of ceramic tile.

SPARKS SAID ceramic tile production in this country has increased 450 per cent since World War II. He attributed the rise of expanded building construction and the fact that ceramic tile is finding ever-increasing uses in homes and buildings.

Despite the growing demand, the industry is in an excellent position to fill orders promptly because of increased plant capacity, Sparks said. Present output is about 200 million square feet but the nation's producers can double this figure with existing facilities, he declared.

SUPERVISOR'S ANNUAL REPORT

March 10, 1959

Mr. L. E. Murrie, Supervisor, Antioch Township, Antioch, Illinois

The following statements pertain to cash receipts and disbursements for the year of February 1, 1958 to January 31, 1959 for the various funds handled by your office.

The statements, and the examinations preparatory thereto, have been made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and included such tests as were deemed necessary.

In my opinion, the accompanying statements present fairly the financial position of Antioch Township at January 31, 1959, and the results of its operations for the fiscal year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Grass Lake Doings

By Mrs. Earl Beese
Correspondent

Rose McGuinness of Petite Lake was recently named manager of the cafeteria at the Mutual Trust Insurance Co. in Chicago. She also received a gold pin recently for 25 years service to the Langford Co. of Chicago, for managing their concession at the Mandel Bros. store. Sounds as if she is really deserving of her new promotion.

Friends and neighbors in the Grass Lake area are perhaps not aware of the recent loss of the Carl Reichenbach family. Mr. Reichenbach's father, Charles, passed away on March 18 at his home in Evanston, at the age of 71. He was a resident almost all his life of that community. His three grandchildren, Emily, Shirley, and Carl, Jr., will miss him a great deal, and we extend our sympathies to the entire family.

Everyone in this community was also greatly shocked by the sudden death of Louis Kempf, known to almost everyone in the area, and wish to extend their kind thoughts to his wife, Mary Jane, at this time. Those in the Beachwood Subdivision will particularly miss his help and cooperation in their community association projects.

The Walter Johnsons of Resthaven Subdivision enjoyed an evening out to celebrate their 12th wedding anniversary last Saturday evening. Alice's mother cared for their three children on Easter eve while they and two other couples went into Chicago for a celebration. First they stopped at Don the Beachcomber's after which they attended Cinerama. To complete the enjoyable evening they ate at Dohl's Morton House in Morton Grove, where the organist played Anniversary Waltz and the management presented them with a cake in honor of the occasion. Last stop for the night was the El Toro where they saw a Spanish type floor show which they enjoyed very much. All in all they had a grand time to mark the big occasion.

The Earl Beeses of Rest Haven subdivision spent an evening with friends in Deerfield on Saturday evening. Also with them were the John Jorgensons of the Antioch area. It was an evening of music, dancing and singing for all at the party, and the thoughts of all who attended were with the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. William Arns, on Easter morning when they were awakened by their eight children all wanting to see what the Easter bunny had left. All the guests had to be careful not to sit or step on colored eggs hidden in various places. Ah! the joys of parenthood.

Homemakers Plan Cosmetics Plant Tour

Twenty-four members of the Antioch Home Makers met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Harry Weiss of Channel Lake with Mrs. Frank Hennig and Mrs. A. Stewart as co-hostess for the dessert luncheon. Gifts were exchanged for secret pals and cards were played. Plans were made for a tour through Avon Cosmetic Co. April 15 with luncheon at Stouffers at Old Orchard Shopping Center.

Voters To Polls.....

Is that for justice of the peace between Ted Captain, Harold Wilson and John Delaney. Wilson is an incumbent. Captain has been campaigning on promises of attendance at all township meetings and has been trying to ally himself with Murrie's campaign.

The other offices are uncontested. James Runyard for a four year term as highway commissioner and Helen Scott and O. Robert Kresse for library board members, six year terms.

Polling places in Antioch will be: Precinct 1, Antioch Fire Station; Precinct 2, Antioch Village Hall; Precinct 3, Lotus School; Precinct 4, Grass Lake School; Precinct 5, Channel Lake School and Precinct 6, Emmons School. Polls open at 6 a. m. and close at 6 p. m.

SALEM TOWNSHIP—

All posts are up for election this year but with the only contests being for two township supervisor posts, two justice of the peace posts and the office of assessor.

In the supervisor race, the four candidates are Neal J. Kiley, Donald L. Klapper, Lee Wilson and Gilbert Haisma. These four were placed on the ballot by voters in the primary elections of three weeks ago. In that election, incumbent John Schnurr was defeated.

Earl H. Elfers, township chairman, is unopposed for the four year term, as are Gerald M. Siebert for town clerk and Alva C. Paddock for treasurer. Three men are running for the three constable posts: Preston Stoxen, Albert Johnson, Jr., and Lee Wazelle.

FOR JUSTICE OF the Peace, voters will choose from E. Ben Noble, and George Rupp, incumbents and William Anderson, a perennial candidate.

Incumbent William Kavanaugh and John R. Severs will be opposites in the race for assessor.

Although there are no election issues, voters in Salem Township will be interested in how the future elected officials feel about the proposal to make the township a city. It is felt in some quarters that anyone elected will be against the plan for it would automatically mean they could lose their jobs in the transition. However, these same officials may be prime candidates for city jobs if the plan were to be voted in by the people.

Polls are: Precinct 1, Salem Fire Station, Precinct 2, Wilnot Fire Station. Hours are from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m.

LAKE VILLA TOWNSHIP:

No contests for any offices in the township. Supervisor Edward Tiede is not up for election this year but highway commissioner Fred Popp is. However, he is unopposed as are the candidates for the two library trustee posts.

Polls at Lake Villa are: Precinct 1, Village Hall in Lake Villa; Precinct 2, Gavin School North; Precinct 3, Lake Villa School; Precinct 4, Venetian Village Community Hall; Precinct 5, Lindenhurst Village Hall. The Lindenhurst polling place is changed from the last election which was the American Legion Hall. Balloting hours are from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Antioch Twp. Lowers Some Budget Levies

Antioch residents may be pleasantly surprised when they attend the annual township meeting Tuesday night in the Fire Station in Antioch to learn that officials are going to ask less money from them for next year's tax money.

The greatest decrease in levy will be asked for the township poor fund which will be cut $8,000. Currently there is $36,000 on hand to take care of poor needs but because expenditures every year are less than anticipated, the cash balance has accumulated.

THE TAXPAYERS will be asked to provide only $5,000 next year, a cut from $13,000 in 1958-59, officials decided at a budget hearing Tuesday here.

Supervisor L. E. Murrie noted that he wanted to eliminate the poor fund entirely next year, but legal counsel advised that it would be best to make a levy for the fund "just in case."

ANOTHER FUND will get slashed in the levy requests, that of the town fund which will be cut from $19,500 to $15,000 next year.

All the cuts are brought about because of cash balances which have accumulated in the funds. A balance of $34,726 appears in the town fund.

In other business Tuesday, the town board voted to increase the salary of the road commissioner from $16 to $20 per day in accordance with state law which permits a $20 maximum in townships this size. The road commissioner works a six-day week it was noted.

The board also passed a resolution to place all township employees on social security instead of a municipal retirement fund. It was felt the social security would be less costly and less complicated for the township and just as beneficial to the employees.

MOVIE OF THE WEEK

Water, Water Everywhere For James Garner

After two months of underwater and in-the-water work for Warner Bros.' submarine story, "Up Periscope," James Garner was happy to wring out his clothes and get back into the dry confines of studio sound stages.

For most of the filming the actor actually was in the water, either aboard the submarine USS Tiffish off the coast of San Diego on location, while doing underwater sequences in a special tank, or during swimming scenes in the Pacific Ocean and in the back-lot lake at Warner Bros.

Even his big love scene with Andra Martin called for him to get wet and stay wet. The scene was played on the beach after the couple had just come out of the water. And all during the torrid interlude a special effects man kept them sprayed with water.

To Review Budget At L V Annual Twp. Meet Tues.

Annual town meeting of Lake Villa Township will be held Tuesday night in the town hall and rescue squad building. It will begin at 8 p. m.

The budget will be reviewed and the problem of what to do about replacing the money lost when the township collector job was abolished will be discussed. The township is out $5,000 because of this, says Edward Tiede, supervisor. Several minor changes in the budget will be made also.

TIEDE SAID that tax anticipation warrants will have to be issued in the fall or winter for the gravel tax fund, the general fund and the road and bridge fund but that the poor fund and library fund are in good condition. Issuance of the warrants will be because of the failure of the county to arrive at a valuation figure and get tax bills out.

RE-ELECT

for

Township Supervisor Antioch Township

TO THE VOTERS OF ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP:

Four years ago your fine support carried me into office by a high majority. At that time I promised to carry out the duties of the office to the best of my ability. I respectfully submit the following facts concerning my conduct of the office which I believe warrant your continued support:

1. Under my administration the strictest economy has been practiced, with the result that the Town Tax Levy has been reduced substantially. While taxes have been going up in most departments of government, your Township Government has been able to REDUCE taxes.
2. Through diligent work and application to the task at hand, I have been able to recover approximately $10,000.00 for the Poor Fund. This fund is now in a healthy position and no additional Levy for this purpose will be necessary in the foreseeable future. This has been a great factor in enabling the Town to reduce taxes.
3. I have been instrumental in obtaining land and building a permanent building in which to house the Township road maintenance equipment. Prior to this, rent was paid for this housing. New equipment has been added also for betterment of our roads. THIS HAS ALSO BEEN DONE WITHOUT ANY INCREASE IN THE TAX LEVY.
4. I have been faithful in attendance of the meetings of the County Board of Supervisors, and have been active on many important committees of that body. "Knowing the Ropes" is an important part of obtaining proper representation for Antioch Township on the County Board, and in this respect I have served my "freshman term". I will continue to do everything in my power to secure Antioch's rightful share of County benefits, if I am elected.
5. I have conducted the affairs of the Town Government in a business-like manner. The Town records are in perfect order and are available for inspection at any time.

If you believe that the above facts qualify me for the office, I hope that you will again support my candidacy for the office.

Thank you again,
Lloyd E. (Red) Murrie
